

FEVER & AGUE
This invaluable medicine was prepared from an extensive practice of several years in a bilious climate, and is never known to fail of curing Fever and Ague, or any of the above diseases.
It is equally effectual for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, enlargement of the liver; also enlargement of the spleen, called Ague cake, and the various forms of bilious indigestion. These, with the other varied affections of such climates, arising from a common miasmatic cause, are only modifications of the same disease, and equally controlled by the same remedy.
Residence of bilious climates, emigrants, or persons traveling through infected districts of country, will find the Cholagogue an invaluable and absolute preventive.
Each bottle of medicine is accompanied with a pamphlet on the "Causes, Treatment, and cure of Fever and Ague, and other Diseases of Bilious Climates," containing much valuable information, and may be had gratis of the undersigned agent.
From the Hon. W. A. FLETCHER, Chief Justice, Supreme Court of the State of Michigan.
ANN ARBOR, Feb. 17th 1842.
MR. EDWARD BINGHAM:
Sir—Having had repeated opportunities during the last year, to witness the salutary effects of Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue, it affords me great pleasure to bear testimony in its favor, as an invaluable remedy in cases of fever and ague and bilious diseases generally. Many cases have come under my observation, of persons who have suffered for years, who have been immediately relieved by the use of one or two bottles of the Cholagogue; and I have not known a single case where relief has not been obtained by its use.
Believing that the general use of this medicine must be of the greatest importance to all persons living in those parts of our country, which are subject to bilious Diseases, I give it this general recommendation. Nor is the pleasure of this act diminished by the fact that I am personally acquainted with Dr. Osgood, and that I have the most entire confidence in him as a skillful, experienced, and judicious physician. I remain respectfully, your most obedient servant,
WM. A. FLETCHER.

LITERARY NOTICES.

Prospectus of the Ohio Statesman.
THE undersigned respectfully announce to the DEMOCRAT of Ohio, that they have purchased of Col. SAMUEL MENARY, all his interest in the Ohio Statesman newspaper, from and after the 1st of July, 1845. The paper will, as heretofore, advocate, unflinchingly, Democratic Principles and measures, and give the strongest support to the regularly nominated candidates of the Democratic Party, that it will be in the power of the undersigned to afford. To firmly support the National Administration—to maintain the right of this country to the territory of Oregon—to uphold the great doctrine of the sovereignty of the people, as contended for by the patriot DORR—to contend for the adjustment of the tariff in such a manner as shall do justice to the great Agricultural interest of the West—to labor for the settlement of the National Finance question in a way that shall prevent the public moneys from becoming the means of individual aggrandizement—and to strenuously support any measure calculated to make the laws of Ohio embodiments of the principles of Liberty and Equality, and to give to the State a sound currency—these are the objects which the undersigned propose to themselves in the new and arduous position which they have assumed. Their success must depend upon the amount and the character of the support which they shall receive at the hands of the Democracy of the great Empire State of the West, whose voice in the National Councils is so important, and whose example, in the management of their internal affairs, is destined to exert a vast influence upon all quarters of the Union, and particularly to give a character to the legislation of the new communities which are constantly arising, and demanding to be admitted to the rights and privileges enjoyed by the members of the confederacy.
The undersigned have invested a large amount of capital in their present undertaking. They have brought to its support, whatever of talent and enterprise they possess. Their interest is identical with that of the West; and there is no incentive to exertion—no motive which can incite man to a faithful discharge of important duties—which is not moving them to labor for the good of that portion of the confederacy into whose hands the physical and moral powers of the nation are rapidly passing. Under these circumstances, they feel that they are privileged to ask for that support and to look for that confidence from the Democracy of Ohio, without which all their labors must be worse than performed in vain.
The undersigned propose making some mechanical improvements in the paper, which will render it more worthy the support of the public. A fair proportion of the paper will be devoted to miscellaneous reading and news matter.
